DEATHS

MRS. ARTHUR T. VAWTER—One of the saddest deaths it has been our duty to chronicle in a long time was that of Mrs. Vawter, who passed over to the better land on Monday evening June 29th after a long illness. Mrs. Vawter was young and handsome, had a happy home and loving husband and daughter and had every hope of enjoying a long and happy life when stricken with her fatal illness brought on by stomach trouble.

She was formerly Miss Clara Irvine, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robt. Irvine of Fairville. She was thirty years old.

Mrs. Vawter was taken to the home of her parents a week ago when her condition became critical and a specialist from St. Louis was called who attempted to save her life by an operation, but found it was too late.

She was an active and faithful member of the First Presbyterian church.

Funeral services were held at the residence in Fairville Wednesday at 1:30 p. m. by Rev. J. E. McDonald, her pastor being out of town, and burial at Ridge Park cemetery. The many in attendance and the beautiful floral offerings attested the love of her friends and acquaintances.

JAMES MARR, than whom none seemed more healthy and jolly up to a week ago, fell dead in his yard on his farm near Nelson on Tuesday morning of heart failure it is presumed. Mr. Marr was a candidate for county collector and was making a strong campaign. For several days he complained of what he thought was indigestion and Tuesday morning he had just returned from Blackwater where he shipped some hogs, when he was seized with the attack as stated.

He was the son of Mrs. John Marr and is also survived by his wife and four children, as well as four brothers and three sisters, all of whom reside in the southeastern part of the county.

B. F. ROLLINS was born March 12, 1842 in Pleasureville, Kentucky. He died June 18, 1910 at home in Blackburn, after a short illness. The funeral took place Sunday afternoon at 2 o'clock, from the home. Services were conducted by Rev. Dowdy of Bates City and he spoke words of comfort to the sorrowing ones. The remains were laid to rest in the Blackburn cemetery beneath a mound covered with beautiful flowers and beside the wife of whom he was bereft only 3 years ago. Two daughters and five sons survive.

PEYTON JETER, died Saturday night, June 25th, of heart trouble at the home of his sister, Mrs. E. B. Miller, at Wakita, Okla. It will be remembered that Mr. Jeter was attacked by heart failure brought on by excitement over the fire at Malta Bend a year ago. He was very sick at the time and had several other severe attacks since, Saturday's proving fatal.

He was the son of Mr. and Mrs. S. B. Jeter of Miami. He is survived by his wife and year-old daughter.

Mr. Jeter had been a merchant at Malta Bend for a good many years and was compelled to give up his work because of his poor health. His remains were brought back Monday and laid to rest after services at the M. E. Church, South conducted by Rev. W. P. Barrett and Rev. J. F. Kemper.

JOHN ERNST—We were pained to learn of the sudden death Sunday of John Ernst, one of the county's wealthy and prominent German farmers of near Grand Pass. Mr. Ernst came here from Franklin county and after locating at Grand Pass induced many of his relatives and friends to locate here also. He was a fine man, industrious and progressive, a faithful member of a German church at Blackburn and a citizen whose death means a loss to the county. Four years ago he was the Republican candidate for county judge. He had been a sufferer from Bright's disease for about two years and was known to be in a serious condition. He had gone to California, Mo., on a visit and was at a neighboring village where he died while in his room, no doubt very suddenly as no one was aware of his attack.

He is survived by his wife and a large family of children, to whom we extend heartfelt sympathy. Funeral services were held at Blackburn.

The remains of the little son of Mr. and Mrs. P. M. Sandidge were laid to rest at Nelson Tuesday. The parents formerly lived at Nelson, but moved to Osceola. The little fellow died Sunday night at the age of two years.

Our Buckeye correspondent reports the death of Frank Singleton of Miami at Kansas City on June 19th.

SALINA HOBSON, col. died at her home at Fairville Monday evening June 27th, after a year's illness, aged 60 years. Funeral services were held at the Cow Creek Baptist Church at 2 p. m. Tuesday. She was a good lady and much liked by the neighbors.

Badly Hurt in a Runaway

Rufus Clark, Jr., in Critical Condition—Other Mishaps

Rufus Clark, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Rufus Clark of the Woodson vicinity, and residing on an adjoining farm to them, met with a terrible accident Monday that may prove fatal or leave him crippled.

Young Mr. Clark had gone to his father's after his self-binder and had hitched his mules to it when on starting the mules were frightened by the noise and ran away. The machine struck the gate post and knocked it down, causing Mr. Clark to fall off and get under the machine. His back was broken and he received many cuts and bruises. Physicians were summoned and cared for his injuries, but seem to offer but little encouragement for his recovery.

Less than two years ago he was married to Miss Bertha Claycomb, a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thos. J. Claycomb. He is a splendid young man and it is earnestly hoped that he will not only recover but will bear no bad results from the accident.

Mr. Clark was yesterday reported still in a critical condition.

Child Burned to Death

Stephen Tuders, who lives on College Addition told us Tuesday that he had just received the sad news of the death of a child of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Young by being burned in their home. Mrs. Young is his grand-daughter and was formerly Miss Dixie Gordon of Blue Lick. She and her husband moved about five years ago to Los Angeles, Cal., from Blue Lick. He had not received particulars except their home was burned and the little child perished in the flames.

Home Burned

Rural carrier Phil Ball informed us that while away from home Tuesday morning, Mr. and Mrs. Mike Maulden, who live on the Houston estate farm nine miles southeast of Marshall, lost their residence, barn and chicken house by fire. Mr. Maulden works for Mat. Shellenberger, who rents the farm and was in the field and his wife at a neighbor's. About ten o'clock some of the other hands noticed the place on fire and went to the rescue. They could not save the residence or buildings, but succeeded in releasing a calf in the barn.

Horace Johns Bitten

Friday Mrs. Martin Johns and son, Horace drove out to the G. A. Ransberger farm to take Mr. Johns and the men their dinners after arriving there they sent Horace to the house to get a bucket of water, he was attacked by three large Shepherd dogs and was bitten badly before he could be rescued from them. Dr. Durr-ett dressed the wounded boy and he is now able to come down town. His mother reported to us Wednesday that she had counted fifty six flesh wounds. Mr. Johns went out to kill the dogs but they could not be found.—Blackwater News.

After a Refusal Suicide

Lexington, Mo., June 23—Millard C. Price, 26 years old committed suicide here this afternoon by drinking carbolic acid after a quarrel with his sweetheart, Mary Arnold, who has refused to marry him. He turned a carbolic acid bottle to his lips and she struck it away burning her hand, but he had drunk most of the contents and died twenty minutes later. He was a nephew of James N. Price, the city marshal.

Five Hundred Dollar Mule Killed

A. C. Potter, of north of town, had the misfortune of having his fine jennet, Miss Bourbon, killed by lightning last Saturday. She was the mother of Jack Bourbon for whom he refused $1500. While most of his stock is insured, the jennet had been omitted.

Miss Dena Maneke of Slater was at Marshall several days last week the guest of Miss Myrtle Campbell at her home 550 South Ellsworth.

In Dime Novel Style

John Dirck, formerly of Hughesville, now in Lincoln, Kas., had a narrow escape from death last week when he and Truman Gould, his employer, started fourteen miles distant to the later's brother's ranch. At 10 o'clock at night they had got within three miles of the ranch when the bronchos got frightened and ran away. They ran like the wind. They could not control them. It was so dark they could not see the way. They pitched off a sixty-foot embankment.

When John "came to," it was 6 o'clock in the morning. Truman was calling him to bring him water. The men lodged about half way down, and the team went clear down. John cut the harness off the horse that was alive and rode to the next ranch and got help.

Truman died at 8 o'clock. John's mind was confused by the shock and he is in bad nervous condition.

Stock Market.

National Stock Yards Ill., June 29. Receipts of cattle this week at all points were light and while the demand for the medium kinds was only fair, the good cattle advanced 15 to 25c. Quite a number of good cattle were in the receipts this week, which sold from 73-4 to 8c. It looks like we will have a lighter run of cattle the balance of the week and expect all classes to work a little stronger, but we can not offer much encouragement on the medium kinds as they are bound to naturally work lower as the southern season has opened and the cattle will continue to come. Our market will be governed purely by the receipts of southern cattle on every thing except the choice heavy steers. The out-look for this kind is very encouraging and think the good kinds should be made fat before marketing them as there is no danger of them in the next sixty days.

Receipts of sheep have only been moderate at all points and the market has advanced 20 to 35c with top lambs selling at $7.90 with a very heavy sort. The medium and common lambs are still being neglected and are selling from 3 to 51-2c. The best mutton sheep are selling around 41-2c.

Receipts of hogs this week has been heavy at all points and the heavy hogs have not met with a very good demand and are fully 35c lower than the best time of last week. Top on this kind today is $9.40. The pigs and light weights seem to be wanted and these kind are no more than 15 to 20c lower with a top of $9.50. It looks like these hogs will continue to sell around present prices for a while. Unless we have very light receipts we can not expect any advance very soon.

Yours truly,
DRAGGON, BECKER & CO.

The first union outdoor service of the Marshall churches was held on the lawn of the First Presbyterian church Sunday evening. Elder B. T. Wharton delivered the sermon, which was an unusually good one. He said that the true religion of today was bringing the churches closer together and that soon denominational differences will disappear and all will belong to one active and progressive body. He said that in his boyhood days a meeting like Sunday's would have been considered a world's wonder. The attendance was good. Next Sunday evening at seven the next meeting occurs. Vawter's orchestra furnishes the music.

The Baptist have decided to build an addition to their church soon. It is to be 24 feet along the north side of the church and to be high enough to permit a good basement. The basement is to be a Sunday School room and kitchen and the main floor for Sunday School, etc.
